

18th Annual Meeting & Short Course

Society of Environmental Toxicology & Chemistry North Atlantic Chapter

June 6 – 8, 2012

Whispering Pines Conference Center, West Greenwich, RI

AGENDA

- Wednesday, June 6, 2012 Short Course - all day, w/ lunch
Gourmet Buffet dinner
- Thursday, June 7, 2012 Morning sessions
Afternoon sessions w/ keynote
Poster Session w/ Social Mixer
Gourmet buffet dinner
4th Annual NAC Jam Session
- Friday, June 8, 2012 Morning sessions
Annual Membership meeting
Awards, & BOD lunch

SESSION TOPICS IN THE WORKS

- Chemicals in the Environment
- Climate Change
- Emerging Contaminants
- Local Issues
- Ocean Acidification
- General Environmental Toxicology & Chemistry
- Emerging Issues Panel: Global Climate Change
- Poster Session

SHORT COURSE

“An Introduction to Emerging Technologies for Environmental Data Monitoring: Loggers to Sensors Networks to the Cloud,” an overview of new technologies, both hardware and software, used for the collection and storage of environmental data.
Chair, Mike Hutcheson, michael.hutcheson@state.ma.us

Center for Coastal Environmental Sensor Networks

The call for papers is now open

ACCOMMODATION INFORMATION

Located in the heart of 2,300 acres of forests, lakes and streams & part of the W. Alton Jones Campus of the University of Rhode Island, Whispering Pines offers gourmet food and overnight rooms which include complimentary wireless high-speed Internet access, on-site recreational activities (billiards, bocce ball, campfire, canoeing, croquet, fly fishing, half-court basketball, hiking trails, horseshoes, & sand volleyball), full morning breakfast, & outdoor parking at a rate of $146/night (plus taxes). This is a unique location and on-site housing is limited, reserve yours now! Contact Whispering Pines directly @ 401-397-3361 ext. 6056. Refer to NACSETAC conference when booking your room.

STUDENTS

- Reduced student registration rates if day attendee
- Presentation awards
- Special student package deal through NAC, entire meeting/meals/lodging with overnight room sharing

IMPORTANT DEADLINES FOR PRESENTERS

- On-line abstract submittal closes April 01, 2012
- Student Total package registrations close April 01, 2012
- NAC Member scholarship applications close April 01, 2012
- Pre-registrations close May 01, 2012
- Submittal of electronic presentations due by May 20, 2012

CONTACTS

Ted Wickwire, president@nacsetac.org
Dodi Horowitz, 401-782-3042, webmaster@nacsetac.org

www.nacsetac.org